The Union and its Progress.

We are glad to perceive in the tone of our entire exchange from the States, a feeling of devotion to the Union, which is in most gratifying contrast to the sentiments expressed for the previous four or five months. The most ultra of the Southern journals, even, who have been ranting about dissolving the connection between the North and the South, now discuss what they are pleased to term their wrongs and injuries, in a spirit of conciliation and reason, which evinces the supremacy of the "sober second thought," so seldom wrong, and so generally efficient. The wrath and denunciation of the hot-heads of both extremes, has evaporated, without so much as disturbing the equanimity of even those who have been within the immediate circle of the "agitators."

Disunion, like the project of a United States Bank, has become an "obsolete idea." The crisis through which the country has passed, has sobered every fanatic who has not wrought himself into permanent insanity. The public mind, so long stretched, has relaxed, and people talk less and think more. The great denunciator of the Union, Gen. FOOTE, who formerly spoke upon almost every question that came before the Senate, is seldom heard in the Congressional halls. During his visit to Mississippi, before the assembling of Congress, he did gallant service in behalf of the Union. His gift of language proved a National benefit, and his intellectual energies enabled him to work a change in the sentiments of those with whom he is locally associated. Like his fellow agitators generally, he has the good sense to see that a blow struck against the Union, would be visited with a punishment as severe and merited, as the magnitude of the offence; that the people would rise in their majesty and strength, and overwhelm the perpetrators of such an outrage with disgrace.

While the sentiments of the people are educated and enlightened, no evil counsels of ambitious demagogues, or rampant orators, can mar or deface the beautiful political structure that excites the admiration of the world. Progress will mark its course at every succeeding anniversary, and monument after monument of great works and enlightened justice, be erected, to remain as landmarks of each succeeding step of national progress. The tide will never go backwards. The composition, education and energy of our people, will admit of no retrogression. Like the sweeping cataract, or the mountain torrent, it will go forward until the nations afar off shall have felt and acknowledged the influence. The oratorical prediction of Judge DOUGLASS, of an "Ocean Bound Republic," will be fully realized. The old world looks on and wonders, and sees with alarm the "manifest destiny" which "bids fair for the mastery of the universe." As the Liverpool Journal remarks, "America exists to reproach and reform the world." Arrogant officiousness on the part of England in the affairs of the continent, instead of being quietly submitted to for fear of the power of "the mistress of the seas," will be signally rebuked in the very progress towards the accomplishment of the destiny predicted in the sentence which we quote.

The following extract from the Liverpool paper, shows the estimation in which the energy and capacity of the American people is held on the other side of the Atlantic, though wrung from them more by the force of circumstances, than from any love which England bears to America. While rebuking the inactivity of their own people, it but does justice to truth and passing events :

[From the Liverpool Journal.]

America exists to reproach and reform the world. There is a Providence in these things. The rough and ready republicans expand themselves over a universe—the Union has just been enlarged by territories as large as Europe, and already the new State of California exports half a million of gold a month, and prepares to open a steam communication with China and Japan. The Pacific becomes the highway of nations, and enterprises unheard of approach maturity, while the mind of the ancient world is absorbed on the miserable subjects of divine right and sectarian controversy. The majesty of civilization and commerce brightens regions rich and vast, while Europe pauses to parley with idiot legitimists and ancient nonentities. The republic of America bids fair for the mastery of the universe, and will achieve it.

KILLED BY THE INDIANS.—We learn from Captain Wakeman who has just returned from the up country region, that a hunter named KIRK was killed at the "Mountain Gate," Blue Mountains, on Saturday last and was buried the next day. He was an experienced hunter, residing there with three of his brothers. He had shot several deer, which were stolen by the Indians, and on finding one in the act of stealing, he shot him. The Indians in revenge watched him, and in an unguarded moment, attacked him both in front and rear, and shot him down with a gun. Kirk gave his rifle to a small Mexican boy who was with him, and the little fellow escaped with it to the camp, and soon brought back to the spot the hunter's three brothers, who found him dead.

FROM THE MINES.—We learn from a reliable source that a large number of miners at Murphy's, Carson's, and other diggings, in the southern mines, are employed in washing and digging the dirt over for the third and fourth time, and at the two first mentioned diggings, they average from eight to ten dollars per day, each man. This is indeed a prolific soil—rich and teeming with the precious metal.

Correspondence from California.

The California correspondents of some of the papers on the Atlantic side, write many amusing letters concerning matters and things hereabouts. The trouble is, that too many of them are anxious to see their names in print, and make up a batch of the marvellous and wonderful, and as all the world are looking to items from the golden State, they are eagerly published by the editors on the other side. The chap who writes the following to the N. Y. Tribune, will never be hung for a witch or a prophet :

"If the members elect vote as they have voted in the Atlantic States, and as they would vote were they there again, a whig will have Col. Fremont's seat. As to Fremont himself, there is not at present the least hope for him. Both parties distinctly disavow both him and his measures. His gold tax bill has killed him. The fact of his coming here, to the neglect of his duties in Congress, to electioneer for another term, has also been highly prejudicial to his interests. He cannot, of course, await the action of our Legislature and get back to this term of the Senate. Col. Weller will, no doubt, be the great gun of the Locofocos. Of the Whigs, James M. Crane, senior editor of the California Courier, stands, in his prospects, immeasurely ahead of all others. I think he will be elected, but with the unstable ideas of some of our representatives, it is not easy to predict this result with any degree of certainty."

The ballotings in the Joint Convention, shows how much of a prophet this correspondent is. In the first place, Col. FREMONT, who was to be "no whar" in the election, received a vote of which any man would have been proud, while the gentleman who was to be the "great gun of Locofocoism," received four votes, before the last complimentary vote given him. On the Whig side of the prophecy, the candidate who was "immeasurably ahead of all others," and whom this correspondent thought "would be elected," had not the first ballot to show he was a candidate. An amusing book indeed would the sayings, doings and prophecies regarding California make, if collected together, as reported by newspapers correspondent.

Our San Jose Correspondence.

SAN JOSE, March 5, 1851.

Editors of the Pacific News:

Affairs are rather quiet here at present. In the Assembly quite an extended debate was had upon Gen. Vallejo's bond, but the subject was finally made the special order for Saturday. The bill regulating the judicial districts was also taken up and considerable progress made.

In the Senate the amendment to the act defining crimes and punishments, allowing the penalty of death to be imposed for grand larceny, passed 8 to 4. The water lot affair came up incidentally early in the day, when Mr. Broderick took occasion to make some extremely well timed remarks upon the conduct of lobby members. It is a pity they were not present to hear them for they would have seen in how contemptible light they are held.

Mr. Van Buren on leave, introduced a bill to license gaming, which was read twice and ordered printed.

The hesitancy of Congress to give the State the civil fund, has attracted the attention of members, and aroused them to the necessity for prompt action upon the finances. Before many days pass some plan will be proposed. The attempt will be made to fund the warrants and to compel tax collectors to pay over the gold instead of speculating in warrants. The debt, if funded at one per cent. a month, and falling due in 1864, would no doubt be readily absorbed.

A REGULAR POW-WOW.—A day or two since, NORMAN ASSING, and other Chinamen made applications to the Recorder and Mayor severally to order a well-known Chinese women, a creature of the pavé to be sent back to her husband in China, from whom they allege she has absconded. The officers informed the applicants that they had no jurisdiction or power in such matters and consequently could take no action. On yesterday, the frail fair one made a complaint before the Recorder, that her life was thrertened by her brethern and that she was in danger of being forcibly abducted. A warrant was issued for the arrest of two or three, whose names we can neither pronounce or reduce to writing, and they were held to keep the peace.

On passing by the station-house, last night we saw quite a congregations of these brothers to the sun and cousins to the moon, all earnestly talking at once, resembling the chattering of black-birds in a corn-field.

ARRIVAL OF THE NEW ORLEANS.—The steamship New Orleans, J. D. WOOD, commander, arrived at this port about 7 o'clock, last evening. She brings a large number of passengers. She left Panama, on the 16th of February, arrived at Acapulco on the 22d, left on the evening of the 24th, and since encountered very rough and severe weather. The passengers on her downward trip, presented Capt. Wood with a pair of silver pitchers. The express mails, which were dispatched on the 15th of January, reached New York eight days in advance of the regular mail.

We are indebted to GREGORY'S and DODGE & Co.'s Express, for the early delivery of papers, letters, etc.

CAUGHT IN THE ACT.—A well-dressed fellow of genteel address, took the liberty yesterday of appropriating a satin cravat to his use, the property of Mr. L. DENKELSFIELD, a merchant on Clay street. The fellow was caught in the act by B. E. HOLLAND, Esq., who immediately seized him and took him back, when the property was identified by the owner. The fellow was taken before Justice Brown who held him to appear before the District Court in the sum of $500. At the time of the arrest there was a disposition on the part of some to resort to Lynch law, but the better disposed prevailed, and the law allowed to take its course.

☞ Hon. G. W. WRIGHT, and Hon. A. W. BUEL, will accept our thanks for public documents from Washington.

Our Washington Correspondence.

WASHINGTON CITY, Jan. 26, 1850.

Editors of the Pacific News:

You must keep a good heart in California. Much will be done by this Congress in your behalf, but you must wait patiently until about the end of the session. Col. Fremont's Mining bill has no chance at all in the House. It is still in the files of the Committee on Public Lands, who will never report favorably upon it, especially since your newspapers so generally proclaim its unpopularity. You will be glad to hear that the bill granting all the overflowed public lands to the States in which they respectively lie, will have a particularly good effect on California. The way in which the surveys will run, will embrace all the public lands on the rivers Sacramento and San Joaquin, including the narrow strip immediately on the banks of said rivers.

There is no doubt, either, that all the public lands within the jurisdiction of San Francisco will be surrendered to that city, with such reservations only as equity demands for the protection of parties honestly in possession. Your delegation are actively exerting themselves for this purpose. Bills have already been introduced, and others are in preparation, providing for such surrender, not only to San Francisco, but for other places similarly situated.

So soon as the great Land Title bill shall have been disposed of, these other measures will be considered. To insure success, all these bills must be kept entirely separate.

ORIENT.

From the San Joaquin Valley.

The Stockton papers of the 5th inst., have been furnished us by TODD'S Express.

From the Times, we learn that the scrip issued by the city, is being rapidly redeemed $10,000 of it was taken in by the Treasurer, on the 1st inst., leaving only about $3,000 outstanding.

We find in the Times a letter from Dr. Paine, in relation to the Indian depredations, from which the following is an extract:

"On the 4th of February, I visited the Four Creeks, and found my bridges there partially destroyed, as had been represented by rumor. Thirteen men were found, who had been killed by the Indians at that place. Two others were wounded, but had escaped on a horse; one of them has since had his arm amputated, it having become gangrenous. The Indians doubtless skinned a Mr. Johnson, who fought from my house. There were nineteen of us. We saw seven Indians driving off to the mountains about one hundred and fifty head of cattle, and another party of three driving about fifty head. The Indians have all gone to the mountains to live, and will fight, if attacked, at the places they have selected for battle grounds. We saw where they had driven off about six or eight hundred head of cattle, judging from the signs."

Mr. Robert Dunn, took from one hole at Pleasant Valley, on the Merced river, in eight days, upwards of $7000.

The mines at Mokalumne Hill, are said to be doing exceedingly well. On one of the hills, eight hundred feet above the level of the stream, is found as rich diggings as has yet been found in the country.

FURTHER INDIAN NEWS.—We learn that Dr. French, who was settled at the pass in the mountains between the Four Creeks and Los Angeles, was murdered, with fifteen others, by Indians. Great depredations have been committed in the neighborhood of Los Angeles.

We also learn that Mr. Kirk, who was building a bridge, above Douglass & Rennie's, over the Moquelumne, has been killed by Indians. It appears that on Sunday last he went out with his gun, never to return. [Times.

ARRESTED FOR BURGLARY.—A few days since a safe was taken from the store of Messrs. GLADDEN & WHITTEMORE, on California street, and robbed of a small amount of money and some valuable papers. The persons who were arrested at the time, on suspicion of being the perpetrators, were yesterday examined before the Recorder. Their names are Thomas Briggs and John Morris. The evidence against the former was clear and conclusive, and the case of the latter was taken under advisement. They were both bound over in the sum of $2500. From the tools and implements found in their possession, there can be no mistake as to what vocation they have followed in the past.

SIX MONTHS IN THE GOLD MINES.—A very rich, racy and interesting work, bearing the above title, has been laid upon our table. It emanates from the pen of E. GOULD BUFFUM, Esq., a lieutenant in the First Regiment of New York Volunteers, and is compiled from a journal of three years residence in Upper and Lower California. The author writes in a happy style, imparting a great deal of useful information, interspersed with pleasing and humorous descriptions and anecdotes. The scenes and adventures described will be fully appreciated by those whom the fates have ordained to see the "Elephant" in all the glory of his natural deformity.

KNOCKED DOWN.—Yesterday morning a a man named DAVID M. RICHARDS, made a complaint before the Recorder, that on the previous evening he was knocked down and beaten by MILTON NELSON, on Pacific street, opposite to the New England House. It appears that the parties had a difficulty at a settlement of their affairs, and redress was sought to be obtained in this very summary and uncivil manner. The complainant is not much injured, having received no harder blows than could be inflicted in a fist fight.

BURGLARY.—On Tuesday evening, a house on Pacific street, between Dupont and Stockton, occupied by JUANA CASTILLO, was entered and robbed of ten dollars. The money was taken from the drawer in the bar-room. Suspicion fastened upon William H. Hays, who was arrested, and held to appear at the District Court in the sum of $5,000.

☞ By a card in another column it will be seen that Judge MORRISON will resume the practice of the law, in the Supreme and District Courts, in cases not connected with his official duties.

FOR THE STATES.—The fine steamer Antelope is up again for Panama, and will leave on the 15th. The boat and her officers are deservedly popular.

Record of the City Courts.

THURSDAY, March 6.

SUPERIOR COURT.—Hon. D. O. Shattuck, Associate Justice.

Kinsman vs. Haywood, et al—It is ordered by the court that Edward Jones, receiver in this case, pay over to the clerk, out of the funds received by him, the costs of the court, amounting to $219 50, and pay to J. Clarke, the counsel for the plaintiff, the sum of $2000 in county scrip, received by him for rent, as a reasonable fee to said attorney. The balance of said scrip and funds in his hands to be paid in discharge of rent to Palmer, Cook & Co.

Edward C. Rowe vs. Daniel Dennison—Ordered in this case that in accordance with the discretion vested in this court by the Supreme Court to reject or sustain the defence offered, the defence of said defendant is rejected, and the opinion of the Supreme Court made final.

Lease, et al, vs. Clark—The argument on the motion of defendant's counsel, for the exclusion of the grant made by Gov. Alvarado as evidence of title to the land in question, having been heard, the court delivered the following opinion:

The grant under which the plaintiffs claims, purports to be a grant made by Alvarado, Governor of California, to them upon their petition stating that they desired a grant of lands in San Francisco, containing 200 varas, giving the boundary in which it was contained for the purposes set forth in their petition. And it is in the power of the Governor to make said grant and the form together, with a non-compliance with the law, then regulating the distribution of the public domain of Mexico, that the defendant objects. On the 24th of February, 1821, the sovereignty of Spain, over Mexico, ceased, and from that time no part of the public domain could be alienated except in conformity with the laws of Mexico. On the 18th of August, 1824, the Mexican Congress passed a colinization law, giving to the Governors of the various territories the right to grant the public domain under various restrictions, among which they were prohibited from granting lands belonging to any town or corporation, and also from granting any lands within twenty leagues of the sea coast.

[Then follows an abstract of the regulations by which grants were to be made under the colinization law.]

By these regulations every grant to land must be tested; this being the law of Mexico, if the officers of that government, who are entrusted with the important charge of granting public lands exceeded their authority, or neglected the solemnities and formalities of the law, the Court cannot overlook these defects, or shield those claiming under such titles from the consequences of ignorance, carelessness or arbitrary assumption of power.

The first objection that the Court will notice is, that this grant has never been confirmed by the territorial legislature. The Court is of opinion that the confirmation of the departmental legislature admitting that the Governor had the right to make the grant and that the land claimed, did not at the date of the grant belonging to the municipality of San Francisco is absolutely necessary to give this grant any validity in Court. The departmental legislature might have refused to confirm the grant: and the Court must, if it admits the grant without the requisite proof of confirmation decide, that the regulations of 1828 were not in force here at the date of grant, and that the Governor of this territory had the right to dispose of lands without any accountability to any one.

Considering, as the Court does, that the regulations of 1828 were in force up to the time of the making of this grant and the officer so making it, was bound to comply with them, inasmuch as there is no map attached to the grant, no survey on record, or evidence that the parties have been put into judicial possession or act of the Departmental Legislature exhibited, confirming the act of the Governor, and no evidence that the grant together with the map are recorded in a book kept by law as a record of said grants as provided for in the 9th section of the act of 1828, lead this Court to the conclusion that however equitable the plaintiff's title may be, still it is incomplete and imperfect and cannot be admitted in Court as testimony until the United States have by an act of political power confirmed it.

The territorial deputation of California in 1840 asked the government of Mexico to change the colonization laws so as to allow Governors to make grants of lands upon the sea coasts, and also that the government would confirm grants already made within twenty leagues of the coast. This petition does not appear to have ever been complied with and it raises a very strong presumption that all such grants were made without authority, and are void.

Again it is contended that the power to make these grants belonged to the municipal authorities of Yerba Buena or San Francisco; and not to the Governor of the State. By an act of the territorial deputation of California passed Aug. 1834, the Ayuntamientos of Pueblos are requested to make application through the usual channels, asking for Pueblo and municipal lands, which lands they have a right to dispose of by sale or otherwise, and the 17th Article of the decree of the Spanish Cortes of 1813 provides that in the measures necessary for the concession of lots, shall be made by the ayuntamientos, and that the provincial deputation shall approve them. The Ayuntamiento of San Francisco as it appears, made grants of town lots in San Francisco up to the year 1839, when they ceased to exist as a political body, under an act of the Mexican Government and succeeded by a Justice of the Peace, who received instruction to make these grants and it would be strange if the Justice of the Peace could make these grants and the Governor also, when so many conflicts of titles might have resulted, and so much injustice have been done by granting lots without any survey or other conditions which were made to avoid these disputes and difficulties.

For these reasons, the Court is of opinion that the grant is not made in conformity with the colonization law of 1824, and the regulations of 1828; that the instructions laid down in these laws must be strictly conformed to, and that the Court cannot presume in the absence of these requisitions, that the officer making the grant has acted strictly within the line of his duty, and in conformity to the law.

A party seeking to recover upon a paper title in an action of ejectment must show the Court that the title is in himself, and which he claims is complete

This grant does not convey the title to the plaintiffs, but in the opinion of the Court, the title remains either in the government of the U. S. or the city of San Francisco, and until confirmed by them it is inadmissible for the purposes of procuring a conveyance from the Governor of California to the plaintiffs.

Burritt, Yale and Greenhow for the plaintiffs; Heydenfeldt, Morse, and Lockwood for the defendants.

ROW AT THE JENNY LIND THEATRE.—We learn that there was considerable of a "muss" or row, as the Jenny Lind theatre, lrst evening. The evening's performance was devoted to the benefit of Mr. BINGHAM, which was announced as his "last appearance," at this theatre. The firemen of the city had turned out pretty strongly on the occasion, Mr. B. being a popular member of the Department. After the first play, Mr. B., and several others, were called out, and made speeches. Mrs. KIRBY, one of the managers, made some derogatory remarks concerning Mr. Bingham, which were certainly uncalled for, and on its being announced that Mr. B. had been discharged from the theatre, the firemen and others jumped on the stage, broke the railings, and otherwise manifested their disapprobation of the management. They finally cooled down, having no opposition to contend against, but effected the close of the evening's performance.

THE CHESAPEAKE.—This fine steamer, as will be seen on reference to our advertising columns, sails for Klamath, Gold Bluffs, Trinidad and Eureka, at two o'clock, P. M., tomorrow, from the foot of Long Wharf. This is a rare chance for those about departing for those regions, and they will do well to improve it.

"SUNDAY MORNING CLARION."—This is the title of a new weekly newspaper, advertised in our columns, to make its appearance in our city, on Sunday morning next. It is to be edited and conducted by Mr. W. J. SMITH, formerly connected with the press in the city and State of New York,

THE MINER'S TAX LAW.—A meeting of the citizens of Stockton, was to be held last evening, on the subject of the Miner's Tax Law, the call for which is numerously signed, and which states that persons are now collecting a miner's tax, without a shadow of right. The call for the meeting adds:

Card. Look at this!

Being in a feeble state of health, the subscriber is compelled to take a voyage to the Sandwich Islands, and will therefore sell out his stock in trade and good will, at low cost per inventory, or receive a partner who can advance either the same sum he has invested, or even less, if said partner is in other respects desirable. His late firm has just divided equally and amicably about TEN THOUSAND DOLLARS, realized in a few months. This, and much more can be done over again, and he would venture to say $20,000, during the business year, and as his return would be immediate, his experience in purchasing, selling, &c. would be given wholly to the business with renewed vigor. He has two stores in full and successful operation. Apply in person at the store in Pacific street, below Kearny. (jan15 tf) ROBERT JACKSON.

GREAT EXCITEMENT!

"Sound again, Clarion,
Clarion, pour thy blast."

THE undersigned announces to the citizens of San Francisco that he will issue on SUNDAY MORNING, March 9th, the first number of a new weekly newspaper entitled the

SUNDAY MORNING CLARION.

Each number of the CLARION will contain TWENTY COLUMNS of interesting reading matter, and one or more Splendid Engravings!

The Clarion will, in its time, be "independent in all things, and neutral in nothing," and devote itself to the discussion of all subjects of interest, and fearlessly and boldly attack vice and corruption in whatever shape it may assume—whether from the lowly cottage or liveried palace—the peasant or noble—the Bench or the Pulpit. Malfeasance and corruption of officials in office will be especially exposed and denounced. Sporting, criminal and general news of the day, together with a weekly exhibition of life as it exists in San Francisco, fun and gossip, will also form a particular feature of the Clarion.

Price 25 cents per single copy.

Office foot of Washington street, corner of Sansome, in the Iron Building, up stairs.

The Clarion will be furnished to News Agents and boys on liberal terms. Carriers wanted to serve the paper to city subscribers.

MAGNIFICENT WORK OF ART.

THE WAR BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES AND MEXICO, ILLUSTRATED! Embracing Pictorial Drawings of all the principal conflicts by CARL NEBEL, author of "A Picturesque and Archæological Voyage in Mexico," with a description of each Battle, by GEO. WILKINS KENDALL, author of "The Texan Santa Fe Expedition," etc., published by Appleton & Co., New York.

Most of the 12 illustrations of this work were drawn on the spot by the Artist, and are strictly true to nature in the Ground, Landscape, Buildings, Coloring, and Costume. The best Lithographers, Colorists, and Printers were employed in its execution. The battles of no country have been illustrated in a richer, more faithful, or more costly style of lithography. This magnificent work of art, one of the finest known to modern times—will add richness to the most ornate drawing room, the library of gentlemen of taste, or the archives of public bodies and institutions.
